

▲ Use the master control in your foyer or hallway, or to adjust all the lighting in a room. Adjust and monitor all your lighting from a bedside master control.

Adjust all the lighting in your home from convenient master controls.

- Create a well-lighted pathway through your home with the touch of a button
- Enter your home and adjust the lights with your master control
- Reduce clutter by replacing multiple switches on the wall with a single master control
- Secure your home for the night...control and monitor all the lighting from your bedside
- Install easily with no rewiring, and upgrade at any time as your home, and your lifestyle, changes

5-large-button wall-mounted master control with personalized engraving

